Scope of Work Summary

Department of Health and Human Services is requesting approval of an Amendment with the Hitchcock Center for Women for the anticipated cost of $150,000.00.

This Agreement shall become effective as of the May 1, 2022 to April 30, 2025.

Describe the exact services being provided. The anticipated start-completion dates are 5/1/2022 - 4/30/2025.

Hitchcock Center for Women (HCFW) provides treatment and recovery services for women experiencing substance abuse issues. Many of the women come from abusive homes, currently are homeless, and/or are responsible for at risk children. HCFW is the only treatment and recovery center that specializes in treating women on the east side of Cleveland and Cuyahoga County. What makes HCFW truly unique is that the center allows children, up to the age of 12, to live onsite, while their mother receives treatment. Since 1992 its home has been the former St. Mary's Seminary, built in 1924. Today, its home is technologically obsolete, suffering from age and deferred maintenance with a limited life expectancy. To maintain the important role of the Hitchcock Center for Women in the wellbeing of women who find themselves homeless, and suffering from substance abuse issues, a new path forward is required.

To accomplish this innovative transformational goal, Hitchcock Center for Women has teamed up with The Finch Group ("TFG"), an experienced and expert real estate developer which has developed a portfolio of over a quarter-billion dollars of various types of properties in Cuyahoga County and the City of Cleveland. The building proposed, to be built on land already owned by Hitchcock, is directly across from the new, highly rated Wilson Elementary School. Because many women going through treatment and recovery have children, the proximity to the school becomes an integral part of their children's wellbeing.

Together, Hitchcock and TFG are proposing a new comprehensive building containing updated and state of the art treatment facilities and Recovery Housing. One of the ways to fund a portion of the new building is to use Low Income Housing Tax Credits to support Recovery Housing. In this manner Hitchcock can offer longer term supportive housing for the graduates of its treatment program.

The primary goals of the project is to obtain funding to support new residential treatment and recovery center on existing Glenville property.
