Background

The Ohio Family and Children First Council is statutorily defined as the Governor's Cabinet for children and families in the 1993 Ohio Revised Code 121.37. The Council has eleven state agencies which include (Ohio Department of Agriculture, Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services, Ohio Department of Development Disabilities, Ohio Department of Education, Ohio Department of Health, Ohio Department of Mental Health, Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, Ohio Department of Youth Services, Ohio Rehabilitation Services Commission, and Ohio Budget and Management). Ohio Family and Children First has 4 core responsibilities: engaging and empowering families, shared accountability, building community capacity and coordinating systems and services. The partnership of state agencies is replicated at the local level, expanding the scope to add local government, communities and families. Local Councils exist in each of the 88 counties. There are formal by-laws for electing leadership, making decisions, standing committees, guiding principles and the roles of officers and staff. The Council focuses on enhancing the well-being of Ohio's children and families by building community capacity, coordinating systems and services, and engaging and empowering families. Family and Children First Council (FCFC) provides a simple and organized service coordination mechanism at the county level.

As the planning entity for Cuyahoga County, FCFC promotes collaborative coordination across a continuum of family-centered, neighborhood based culturally competent services ensuring the well-being of every child in order to preserve and strengthen families in their communities. The Cuyahoga County FCFC does not provide any direct social services. FCFC facilitates planning for direct services for families and children prenatal through 21. The FCFC member's systems provide the direct services for individual and families. FCFC can direct families to individual systems to help them access quality services. Through collaborative efforts FCFC continues to achieve the following accomplishments; participation and promotion of Parent Services and activities, Youth Engagement through the development of the Youth Advisory Leadership Coalition, continued support to the Service Coordination
